

ACS Photonics Author Checklist

(See the ACS Photonics Instructions for Authors for more manuscript submission details.)

Before submitting your manuscript, please check your submission for the following:

- All co-authors listed with full names and correct e-mail addresses provided.
- Names of preferred reviewers specified.

Title

- Uncommon acronyms, abbreviations, jargon, or words like “First”, “Novel”, “Facile” are avoided.

Abstract

- Abstract should adhere to length of 150-250 words.
- Reference citations should be avoided.
- Abbreviations and acronyms are used sparingly, and are defined upon first usage.
- Up to six keywords are listed following the abstract.

Table of Contents Graphic

- A “Table of Contents” (TOC) graphic provided after the Abstract under the header “TOC Graphic”. Provide an illustration that best describes your overall work rather than copying and pasting a figure from the manuscript. TOC graphics should be ~8 cm (~3.5 in) in width and ~4 cm (~1.5 in) height, and must be ~300 dpi in resolution and in RGB color mode.

References

- References are individually numbered with only one citation per reference.
- The use of excessive self-citations is avoided.
- References adhere to correct journal style: include article titles in title case, journal abbreviation according to CASSI, proper punctuation and arrangement, and full page ranges. An example is shown below.
 1. Kaake, L. G.; Jasieniak, J. J.; Bakus, R. C.; Welch, G. C.; Moses, D.; Bazan, G. C.; Heeger, A. J. Photoinduced Charge Generation in a Molecular Bulk Heterojunction Material. J. Am. Chem. Soc. 2012, 134, 19828-19838.

Graphics and Tables

- Figures and tables have captions. Figure insets, if any, are described in the caption.
- Graphs include axes titles clearly identifying the variable and unit.
- Tables and schemes have titles and may contain footnotes.
- Figures and tables are submitted at final published size.
- Lettering and scale bar dimensions are legible.

Supporting Information

- Supporting Information (SI) for Publication and SI for Review Only, if any, are uploaded as separate files and not placed directly in the manuscript.
- SI for Publication is described in a separate paragraph in the manuscript, placed immediately after Acknowledgments using the following template:
